Understanding Hotel Areas in Makkah - Which Zone to Stay In

Zones change everything.

Two hotels can both say “near Haram” and still feel worlds apart. One might be a flat 4-minute walk. The other might be 6 minutes but uphill, crowded, and tiring after ‘Isha.

Here’s the simple zone map we use when advising UK pilgrims. It’s based on Makkah hotel distance from Haram, walking effort, and the price jump you’ll see as you get closer.

Zone	Distance to Haram	Walk Time	Price/Night (GBP)	Best For
------	-------------------	-----------	-------------------	----------

Abraj Al-Bait (Clock Tower)	0-200m	1-3 min	£85-£400+	Luxury, Kaaba view
Jabal Omar	200-500m	3-7 min	£80-£180	Modern, families, groups
Ibrahim Khalil Road	500m-1km	5-12 min	£35-£135	Best value for money
Ajyad	300-800m	5-10 min	£35-£100	Budget, walkable (steep hills)
Kudai / Misfalah	1-2km	15-25 min	£20-£50	Budget + shuttle
Aziziyah	3-5km	Shuttle only	£15-£35	Ultra-budget, Hajj overflow

Zone 1 — Abraj Al-Bait (Clock Tower Complex)

This is the “right there” zone.

You’re attached to the Haram area. It’s flat. It’s also the priciest. Hotels here include Swissotel, Pullman Zamzam, Fairmont Clock Tower, and Raffles.

Zone 2 — Jabal Omar Development

Modern and very close.

This area is south-west of the Haram. It’s packed with newer buildings and strong facilities. Conrad, Hyatt Regency, and Hilton Suites sit here. The walk is usually smooth and not steep.

Zone 3 — Ibrahim Khalil Road

This is our “value zone”.

If you want a walkable stay without Clock Tower prices, this is often the sweet spot. You’ll see many big names here, like Hilton Convention, Anjum, Voco, Le Meridien, Marriott, Millennium, and Sheraton. People also search this as Ibrahim Khalil Road Makkah hotels.

And if you're planning some ziyarat, save our list of places to visit in Makkah. It helps you plan your days well.

Zone 4 — Ajyad Area (Read this before you book)

Ajyad can be close. But it can also be hard.

Some streets are steep. That uphill return after prayer can be rough. So, if you're travelling with elderly parents, we usually steer you away from Ajyad.

Zone 5 — Kudai / Misfalah

Budget comes first here.

Many hotels provide a shuttle. The ride is often 5-10 minutes. Walking can be long, especially in heat or crowds.

Zone 6 — Aziziyah

This is far.

It's mostly used in peak seasons, or for very tight budgets. For most Umrah trips, it's not the calmest choice.

Best 5-Star Hotels Near Haram Makkah

These are the heavy hitters.

When people ask us for 5 star hotels near Haram Makkah, they usually want one thing: easy access. Then they want comfort, clean rooms, and good lifts. And yes, many ask for hotels near Kaaba with a view.

Prices below are per room per night in GBP, based on April 2026 research. Your dates can shift them a lot.

Abraj Al Bait Clock Tower hotels Makkah Swissotel Pullman Fairmont

1. Swissotel Makkah / Swissotel Al Maqam Makkah

Zone: Abraj Al-Bait (Clock Tower Complex). Distance: 1-2 minutes.

Price: £95-£250 per night. Swissotel Makkah and Swissotel Al Maqam Makkah are popular with UK families. You get direct access into the Clock Tower complex, lots of food options, and a very “easy” feel after long prayers. Some rooms offer a Kaaba view, but you must request it.

2. Pullman Zamzam Makkah

Zone: Abraj Al-Bait. Distance: 1-2 minutes.

Price: £85-£200 per night. Pullman Zamzam Makkah is often the cheapest way into the Clock Tower area. It’s family-friendly, and upper floors can have strong Haram views. Also, the Zamzam theme is real here, so it’s a nice link to the blessing of Zamzam water.

3. Fairmont Makkah Clock Tower

Zone: Abraj Al-Bait. Distance: 0-1 minute.

Price: £120-£250 per night for standard rooms, and £400+ per night for suites or premium Kaaba view. Fairmont Makkah (also called Fairmont Makkah Clock Tower) is the iconic Makkah Clock Tower hotel inside the Abraj Al Bait hotel complex. Indoor access is a big deal when it's busy outside.

4. Raffles Makkah Palace

Zone: Abraj Al-Bait. Distance: 1 minute.

Price: £270-£400+ per night. Raffles Makkah Palace is all suites. It's quiet, polished, and designed for those who want a special stay. If you're travelling for a milestone, this is one of the top picks. It's not "budget-friendly", though. Not even close.

5. Conrad Makkah (Jabal Omar)

Zone: Jabal Omar. Distance: 3-5 minutes.

Price: £85-£180 per night. Conrad Makkah is modern, spacious, and sits in a strong location for groups. The walk is usually smooth. It's also a good choice if you like Hilton standards and service.

6. Hilton Suites Makkah

Zone: Jabal Omar. Distance: 3-5 minutes.

Price: £80-£170 per night. Hilton Suites Makkah is an "all-suite" style hotel. That means extra room, which families love. If you're staying longer, space keeps everyone calm. That's the truth.

7. Hilton Makkah Convention

Zone: Ibrahim Khalil Road. Distance: 7-10 minutes.

Price: £65-£150 per night. Hilton Makkah Convention is one of the best "value" 5-star options. It's big, well-run, and often priced lower than you'd expect. The walk is longer than Clock Tower, but still doable for most people.

8. Hyatt Regency Makkah / Jabal Omar Hyatt Makkah

Zone: Jabal Omar. Distance: 3-5 minutes.

Price: £80-£170 per night. Hyatt Regency Makkah (often searched as Jabal Omar Hyatt Makkah) is sleek and modern. Staff are usually strong. It's also known for a rooftop terrace with Haram views. That's not the same as a room view, though.

9. Dar Al Tawhid InterContinental Makkah

Zone: Adjacent to Haram (King Abdulaziz Gate). Distance: 0-1 minute.

Price: £90-£200 per night. This is one of the closest hotel to Haram Makkah options you can book. For elderly pilgrims, it's a game changer. You step out and you're basically there. Some rooms have partial Haram views, but it's the access that makes it special.

10. Dar Al Eiman Royal Hotel Makkah

Zone: Near Haram (south side). Distance: 3-5 minutes.

Price: £90-£160 per night. Dar Al Eiman Royal Hotel Makkah is a common pick in UK packages. It's reliable and close enough to feel easy. It's not the flashiest. But it does the job well.

11. Makkah Marriott Hotel

Zone: Ibrahim Khalil Road. Distance: 8-10 minutes.

Price: £70-£150 per night. Makkah Marriott Hotel is a steady international brand. If you collect Bonvoy points, you'll like that. Some dates also come with a shuttle option, which helps after long nights.

One quick UK tip: if you're building your trip around a specific hotel, do it early. The best rooms go first. And Ramadan pricing is a different world. If you're thinking Ramadan, read Best Ramadan Umrah Packages UK 2026: Full Month vs Last 10 Nights before you commit.

Best 4-Star Hotels Near Haram Makkah

These are the smart picks.

4 star hotels near Haram Makkah often give you the best balance. You're still close. You still get comfort. But you don't pay Clock Tower rates.

1. Voco Makkah

Zone: Ibrahim Khalil Road. Distance: 5-8 minutes.

Price: £35-£80 per night. Voco Makkah is our best value pick in this whole guide. It's modern, well-priced, and walkable. For many UK pilgrims, it's the "why would I pay more?" option.

2. Anjum Hotel Makkah

Zone: Ibrahim Khalil Road. Distance: 5-8 minutes.

Price: £70-£105 per night. Anjum Hotel Makkah is extremely popular with UK groups. Service is steady. Location is strong. Food options are good for families who want simple meals after prayer.

3. Le Meridien Makkah

Zone: Ibrahim Khalil Road. Distance: 8-12 minutes.

Price: £90-£135 per night. Le Meridien Makkah is a Marriott name. Rooms are usually spacious. Some dates include a shuttle, which helps if you're tired after long nights.

4. Elaf Kinda Hotel Makkah

Zone: Ajjad. Distance: 5-8 minutes.

Price: £50-£100 per night. Elaf Kinda Hotel Makkah can be a good budget 4-star. But remember our Ajjad warning. It can be steep on the way back. If you're fit, it's fine. If not, it's a struggle.

Jabal Omar hotels Makkah Conrad Hyatt Hilton Suites

5. Shaza Makkah

Zone: Ibrahim Khalil Road. Distance: 8-10 minutes.

Price: £50-£100 per night. Shaza Makkah has a boutique feel. Design leans Arabic and calm. It's a nice choice if you want quieter nights and less "busy hotel" energy.

6. Millennium Makkah Al Naseem

Zone: Ibrahim Khalil Road. Distance: 8-12 minutes.

Price: £50-£100 per night. Millennium Makkah Al Naseem is a reliable chain stay. It often works well for families and groups. Some deals include a shuttle, which can be a relief in peak crowds.

7. Movenpick Makkah Hajar Tower

Zone: Ibrahim Khalil Road. Distance: 5-8 minutes.

Price: £75-£140 per night. Movenpick Makkah Hajar Tower is known for a strong breakfast and good upkeep. If food matters to you, this one often wins.

8. Sheraton Makkah

Zone: Ibrahim Khalil Road. Distance: 8-12 minutes.

Price: £65-£110 per night. Sheraton Makkah is another Marriott-linked option. It's good value for room size. A shuttle may be available on some dates.

Quick extra mentions, since we get asked: Al Marwa Rayhaan by Rotana is a solid 4-star in the Ibrahim Khalil Road area, often £50-£90 per night. Al Safwah Royale Orchid is also popular with agents, often £60-£110 per night, and sits close to the Haram area.

Hotel	Zone	Distance	Price/Night	Shuttle	Best For
Voco Makkah 	Ibrahim Khalil	5-8 min	£35-£80	No (walkable)	Best value overall
Anjum Hotel	Ibrahim Khalil	5-8 min	£70-£105	No (walkable)	First-timers, UK popular
Le Meridien	Ibrahim Khalil	8-12 min	£90-£135	Yes	Marriott members

Hotel	Zone	Distance	Price/Night	Shuttle	Best For
Elaf Kinda	Ajyad	5-8 min	£50-£100	No (walkable)	Budget 4-star
Shaza Makkah	Ibrahim Khalil	8-10 min	£50-£100	No	Couples, quiet
Millennium Al Naseem	Ibrahim Khalil	8-12 min	£50-£100	Yes	Families, groups
Movenpick Hajar Tower	Ibrahim Khalil	5-8 min	£75-£140	No	Comfort + mid- budget
Sheraton Makkah	Ibrahim Khalil	8-12 min	£65-£110	Yes	Brand, families

Cheap Hotels Near Haram Makkah - Best 3-Star & Budget Options

You can still do Umrah well on a budget.

Cheap hotels near Haram Makkah are often simpler. That's normal. But clean, safe, and well-located is what matters most. And yes, thousands of UK pilgrims use these each year.

Budget 3 star hotel room near Haram Makkah

1. Al Kiswah Towers Makkah

Zone: Kudai / Misfalah border. Distance: 5–8 minutes (or shuttle).

Price: £27–£35 per night. Al Kiswah Towers Makkah is one of the most common economy picks in UK packages. It's basic, but usually clean. And the value is hard to beat. If you want the cheapest hotels near Haram Makkah that still feel workable, start here.

2. Nawazi Watheer Hotel Makkah

Zone: Kudai. Distance: 5–10 minutes (or shuttle).

Price: £29–£48 per night. Nawazi Watheer Hotel Makkah is another budget stay used by agents. It's simple. It's functional. If you're young and don't need extras, it can be enough.

3. Other budget options (Kudai, Misfalah, Ajyad, Aziziyah)

Price range: £15–£40 per night.

You'll find many unbranded 3 star hotels near Haram Makkah in these areas. Most offer a free shuttle. The rooms are usually "bed, bathroom, air-con". That's it. So, read reviews and check the exact location before you pay.

Hotel	Zone	Distance	Price/Night	Shuttle	Best For
Al Kiswah Towers 	Kudai border	5-8 min	£27-£35	Available	Cheapest walkable
Nawazi Watheer	Kudai	5-10 min	£29-£48	Available	Budget, basic
Various 3-star (Kudai)	Kudai/Misfalah	15-25 min	£15-£40	Yes (free)	Ultra-budget
Various 3-star (Aziziyah)	Aziziyah	Shuttle only	£15-£35	Yes (free)	Hajj overflow

If you're on a strict budget, don't worry. You can still have a comfortable Umrah. Hotels like Al Kiswah Towers and Nawazi Watheer are clean, safe, and used by thousands of UK pilgrims every year. They may not have luxury extras, but they keep you close enough to focus. The money you save can go to a longer stay, better food, or gifts for family.

Hotels with Kaaba View in Makkah - Is It Worth the Premium?

A Kaaba view is powerful.

When we say hotel with Kaaba view, we mean your room window faces the Haram and you can see the Kaaba. Not the courtyard. Not "a side view". The Kaaba.

Now, here's the thing. Not all rooms in these hotels have it. Many "Haram area" hotels have city-view rooms facing car parks or other towers. So you must request "Haram view" or "Kaaba view" in writing.

The premium is real. Expect 30-80% more per night. Higher floors usually give a cleaner view and less street noise.

Hotel	Kaaba View Available	Premium Over City View	Price with View
Fairmont Clock Tower	Yes (iconic)	+50-80%	£200-£400+/night
Raffles Makkah Palace	Yes (all suites)	Included in suite price	£270-£400+/night
Swissotel Makkah	Yes (selected floors)	+40-60%	£150-£250/night
Pullman Zamzam	Yes (selected rooms)	+30-50%	£120-£200/night
Dar Al Tawhid InterContinental	Yes (some rooms)	+30-50%	£130-£200/night
Hyatt Regency (rooftop terrace)	Rooftop view only (not room)	N/A	Free (guests)

Is it worth it? It depends. Spiritually, it can be unforgettable. But you'll spend most of your time in Masjid al-Haram anyway. So some pilgrims choose a cheaper room and put that money into extra days.

If a Haram-facing view matters to you, tell us at the start. We'll confirm the exact room type before you travel. Many people don't do this. Then they get a "near Haram" room with a wall view (yes, really).

Best Hotels Near Haram for Families & Elderly Pilgrims

Comfort helps worship.

When your hotel is wrong, everything feels harder. When it's right, you feel calm. And you focus on why you came.

For families with children

Space is the big need.

We suggest looking for suites, quad rooms, or connecting rooms. Also check lift speed and breakfast timing. Those small things save your day.

- Hilton Suites Makkah (all-suite, very spacious) — from £80/night

- Swissotel Makkah (family rooms, lots of food options) — from £95/night
- Conrad Makkah (modern and smooth for groups) — from £85/night

Tip: quad rooms (4 sharing) are often the best value. They're common in UK packages.

Tip: if you need two rooms, ask for connecting rooms. It makes life easier.

For elderly pilgrims and mobility needs

Go as close as you can.

You want flat ground, easy lifts, and minimal road crossings. That's why the "0-1 minute" hotels are so loved by older pilgrims.

- Dar Al Tawhid InterContinental (at a Haram gate) — from £90/night
- Fairmont Clock Tower (indoor access, flat) — from £120/night
- Pullman Zamzam (1-2 minutes, flat route) — from £85/night

Warning: we don't suggest Ajyad for elderly pilgrims. Those hills can be brutal.

Also: Kudai and Aziziyah often need shuttles. That adds stress.

Wheelchair access

Most 5-star hotels have accessible rooms. But you must ask early.

Best modern options are usually Fairmont, Swissotel, Conrad, and Hyatt Regency. A budget option can be Al Kiswah Towers with shuttle support.

How to Book Your Hotel Near Haram - Tips for UK Pilgrims

Booking is where mistakes happen.

We see it every season. A hotel name looks right. The photos look great. Then the walk is 20 minutes, or it's uphill, or the room type isn't what you thought.

Option 1 — Book as part of an Umrah package (recommended)

This is the simplest route for most UK travellers.

- One price for hotel + flights + visa + transfers
- Agents can get bulk rates (often cheaper than direct)
- ATOL protection when flights are included
- We verify real distance, not marketing claims
- Support if something goes wrong on arrival

All the hotels in this guide can be requested within our plans. Start here: View our packages with hotels near Haram.

Option 2 — Book hotel independently

This can work for off-peak solo trips.

But you'll handle flights, visas, and transfers yourself. And if there's an overbooking or room change, you're on your own. That's the risk.

Booking tips (either way)

These tips save money and stress.

1. Book 2-3 months ahead for best rates and room choice.
2. For Ramadan, book 3-6 months ahead. Rooms sell out fast.
3. Confirm the exact room type in writing (Kaaba view, city view, quad, twin).
4. Check recent reviews. Service can change quickly.
5. Verify the real walk time. Some "near Haram" claims are wild.
6. Higher floors usually mean better views and less noise.
7. Ground floors can help elderly guests. It's simpler.

Frequently Asked Questions About Hotels Near Haram Makkah

What is the closest hotel to Haram in Makkah?

The Dar Al Tawhid InterContinental and Fairmont Makkah Clock Tower are the closest hotels to the Haram. Dar Al Tawhid is right by the King Abdulaziz Gate area. Fairmont is inside Abraj Al-Bait with indoor access. Both are about a 0–1 minute walk in normal conditions.

How much do hotels near Haram cost per night?

It depends on star level and season. Budget 3-star options like Al Kiswah Towers and Nawazi Watheer start around £27-£48 per night. Mid-range 4-star stays like Voco and Elaf Kinda are often £35-£105 per night. Luxury 5-star hotels like Swissotel, Pullman, and Conrad are often £80-£250 per night. Raffles usually starts at £270+. Ramadan and Hajj can double or triple prices.

Which hotels near Haram Makkah have Kaaba view rooms?

Confirmed Kaaba view options include Fairmont Makkah Clock Tower, Raffles Makkah Palace, Swissotel Makkah, Pullman Zamzam Makkah, and some rooms in Dar Al Tawhid InterContinental. Expect a 30–80% premium over city view. And always request “Haram-facing” in writing. It’s the safest way.

Is it better to book a hotel as part of an Umrah package or independently?

For most UK pilgrims, a package is the safer and easier route. You get one plan that includes flights, visa, transfers, and the hotel. You also get support if something changes. Independent booking can work off-peak, but you handle every issue yourself.

What is the best area to stay in Makkah for Umrah?

Abraj Al-Bait and Jabal Omar are best for pure ease and short, flat walks. Ibrahim Khalil Road is often best for value, with a 5–12 minute walk at much lower prices. Ajjad can be close but steep. Aziziyah is usually only for strict budgets or peak overflow.

Are there cheap hotels within walking distance of Haram?

Yes. Al Kiswah Towers and Nawazi Watheer are often within 5–10 minutes (or a short shuttle). Voco Makkah is also a strong pick, with 4-star quality at budget pricing. These are common in economy UK bookings. Just check the exact route and effort.

Which hotels are best for elderly pilgrims near Haram?

Dar Al Tawhid InterContinental is one of the easiest for elderly guests due to the gate-side location. Fairmont Clock Tower is also excellent due to indoor access and flat routes. Pullman Zamzam is another easy option with short walking time. We suggest avoiding Ajjad hills for mobility issues.

Do hotels near Haram include breakfast?

Most 4 and 5-star hotels offer buffet breakfast. Some include it in the rate, and some charge extra. Budget 3-star stays often don’t include meals. If you’re booking through a package, ask us to confirm meal plans before you pay.

How far in advance should I book hotels near Haram Makkah for good prices?

For normal months, 2–3 months ahead is a good target. For Ramadan, 3–6 months is safer. For peak Hajj-linked dates, some hotels fill 6–12 months ahead. Early booking also helps you get the room type you want.

Can I request a specific room or floor in my Umrah package?

Yes, you can. You can request Kaaba view vs city view, connecting rooms, and bed type. You can also request higher floors if you want quieter nights. We'll confirm what's available at booking time so you don't get surprises on arrival.

Conclusion: Choosing the Right Hotel for Your Umrah

Choosing the right hotels near Haram Makkah can be the difference between a tiring trip and a calm one. A short, flat walk means you'll pray more, rest better, and feel less rushed. And that's what you want in Makkah.

Whether you're drawn to the ultra-luxury of Raffles and Fairmont, the strong value of Pullman and Conrad, the unbeatable pricing of Voco, or the budget reliability of Al Kiswah Towers, there's a best hotel for Umrah in Makkah for your needs.
