NOOR UMRAH TRAVELS

Best Time to Perform Umrah 2026: Cheapest, Coolest & Least Crowded Months

Discover the best time to perform Umrah in 2026. Find cheapest, coolest, and least crowded months for a peaceful and affordable spiritual journey.

Published 26 Feb 2026 · 793 words · 4 min read

Introduction

If you are planning your spiritual journey, knowing the best time to perform Umrah can make a huge difference. From avoiding peak crowds to enjoying comfortable weather and cost-effective packages, timing matters. In this guide, we will explore the best time to do Umrah 2026, highlighting the least crowded time for Umrah, cheapest months, and even tips on the best time of day to perform Umrah. Whether you are a first-timer or a regular pilgrim from the UK, this information will help you plan a serene and memorable Umrah experience.

Understanding the Best Time to Perform Umrah

The timing of your Umrah can impact your overall experience. Factors to consider include:

- Weather conditions in Makkah and Madinah
- Crowd levels during peak and off-peak months
- Cost of flights and hotels from the UK

The Umrah weather guide shows that Makkah can get very hot during the summer months (June to August), while cooler months (November to February) offer more comfortable temperatures for rituals.

Cheapest Months for Umrah in 2026

For pilgrims seeking budget-friendly options, certain months offer lower prices without compromising the spiritual experience.

- May to early June 2026 – Pre-Ramadan months tend to have lower hotel and flight costs.
- September to October 2026 – Post-Hajj period sees fewer crowds and cheaper packages.

Booking early is crucial to secure ATOL-protected flights, hotels, and visas at the best rates. Explore our 3-Star Umrah Packages for affordable yet comfortable options.

Least Crowded Time for Umrah

The least crowded time for Umrah allows pilgrims to perform rituals with more focus and devotion. Typically, these months are:

- Mid-Ramadan (excluding the last 10 nights) – Avoids peak Ramadan rush while still experiencing spiritual benefits.
- Shawwal (post-Eid) – Many pilgrims have completed Ramadan Umrah, leaving hotels less crowded.
- Muharram and Safar – Outside peak Hajj season, ideal for quieter visits.

For UK pilgrims, travelling in these months ensures smoother access to Haram areas and shorter waiting times at Tawaf and Sa’i. Check our Umrah Packages from London and other UK cities for flexible travel options.

Weather Considerations – Umrah Climate Guide

Understanding Umrah weather can improve comfort during your pilgrimage.

Month	Average Temperature (°C)	Notes
Jan–Feb	18–28	Coolest months, ideal for long rituals
Mar–Apr	22–34	Moderate, spring season
May–Aug	30–45	Very hot, hydration essential
Sep–Oct	28–38	Warm but manageable
Nov–Dec	20–30	Pleasant for outdoor rituals

The best time of day to perform Umrah is often early morning or after Isha prayer to avoid heat and crowds, especially during summer.

Tips for UK Pilgrims Booking Umrah 2026

- Book early to secure ATOL-protected flights, hotels, and visa support.
- Choose packages with flexible payment options to manage costs.
- Consider group vs private Umrah packages for personalised experiences.
- Use our 5-Star Umrah Packages for premium comfort or 4-Star Umrah Packages for a balance of cost and comfort.
- Travel from major UK hubs like London, Birmingham, or Manchester for easier flight options:
    - Umrah Packages from Manchester
    - Umrah Packages from Birmingham

Planning Around Ramadan & School Holidays

- Ramadan Umrah is spiritually rewarding but highly crowded; book early if considering: Ramadan Umrah Packages.
- School holidays may increase travel costs; consider travelling just before or after for better rates.

Preparing for a Comfortable Umrah

- Pack light and practical clothing – refer to our Umrah Packing List from UK.
- Stay hydrated and plan rest periods during hot months.
- Respect local customs and Haram etiquette for a spiritually fulfilling journey.

Conclusion

Planning your pilgrimage at the best time to perform Umrah ensures a comfortable, spiritually enriching journey. By considering cheapest months, cooler weather, and less crowded periods, UK pilgrims can make the most of their sacred trip.

Start planning your Umrah 2026 today with Noor Umrah Travels and choose from our Umrah Packages for flights, hotels, and visas—all ATOL-protected with flexible payment options and 24/7 UK support. Book early to secure your preferred dates and enjoy a peaceful, fulfilling pilgrimage.

FAQ

Q1: What is the best time to perform Umrah 2026?

A: The best time to perform Umrah in 2026 is typically May–June and September–October, balancing cost, weather, and crowd levels.

Q2: When is the least crowded time for Umrah?

A: Mid-Ramadan, Shawwal, Muharram, and Safar are usually the least crowded months, ideal for pilgrims seeking a peaceful experience.

Q3: Which month is cheapest for Umrah 2026?

A: Pre-Ramadan (May–June) and post-Hajj months (September–October) generally offer the lowest prices for flights and hotels.

Q4: What is the best time of day to perform Umrah?

A: Early morning or after Isha prayer is preferred, avoiding midday heat and peak crowds.

Q5: How can UK pilgrims book secure Umrah packages?

A: Use ATOL-protected UK agencies like Noor Umrah Travels for packages that include flights, hotels, visas, and 24/7 UK support.