Whether you're travelling from London, Birmingham, Manchester, Bradford, or Glasgow, this complete guide will walk you through everything in simple, practical steps. We'll cover Umrah visa online apply, latest Umrah visa price, how to complete the Umrah visa application form, how to do an Umrah visa online check, and whether you qualify for the Saudi visa waiver UK system.

Let's break it down clearly so you can focus on your ibadah with peace of mind.

Umrah Visa for UK Muslims

The Umrah visa is issued by the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia for pilgrims performing Umrah outside the Hajj season. In recent years, the system has become much more digital, making Umrah visa online apply the standard method.

UK passport holders now usually apply through:

- The official Saudi eVisa system
- An approved Umrah travel agency
- The Saudi Waiver Visa from UK apply online portal (for eligible travellers)

It's important to understand that your visa type depends on your nationality and residency status. British passport holders often qualify for an eVisa, while non-British residents may need processing through an authorised agency.

Step-by-Step: How to Apply for Umrah Visa from UK

Let's walk through the correct process so you avoid common mistakes.

1. Check Your Eligibility

Before starting the KSA visa from UK process, confirm:

- Your passport is valid for at least 6 months
- You have a recent passport-size photo
- You have confirmed travel dates
- You meet vaccination requirements (if applicable)

If you hold a full British passport, you can typically apply via the Saudi eVisa portal.

2. Complete the Umrah Visa Online Apply Form

The Umrah visa application form requires:

- Personal details (exactly as per passport)
- Travel information
- Accommodation details

- Declaration section

This is where most mistakes happen. Even a small spelling difference between your passport and form can cause delays. Always double-check names, passport numbers, and date formats.

If you're booking through a trusted UK-based agency like Noor Umrah Travels, they usually handle the visa form for you — reducing the risk of rejection.

3. Pay the Umrah Visa Price

The current Umrah visa price for UK passport holders applying through the eVisa system generally ranges between £120–£150, depending on exchange rates and processing fees.

If you book a full Umrah package, the visa cost is often included alongside flights and hotels. This is especially convenient for families or elderly travellers who prefer a smooth, stress-free experience.

4. Receive Your Visa Approval

Most eVisas are processed within 24–72 hours. However, during Ramadan and school holidays, processing times can increase.

After approval:

- Download and print your visa
- Keep a digital copy on your phone
- Check all details carefully

You can perform an Umrah visa online check through the official portal using your application number.

Saudi Visa Waiver UK – Do You Qualify?

The Saudi visa waiver UK system allows certain travellers to enter Saudi Arabia with a simplified process. It's different from a full eVisa.

You may qualify if:

- You hold a UK passport
- You're travelling for tourism or Umrah
- Your stay is within permitted duration

The Saudi Waiver Visa from UK apply online process is quick and cheaper than a traditional visa, but it may have specific entry rules. Always confirm eligibility before booking flights.
