Introduction

Travelling to Saudi Arabia has become significantly easier for British citizens in recent years. With the introduction of the Saudi visa waiver UK, eligible travellers from the United Kingdom can now visit the Kingdom through a simplified online process without going through the traditional visa route.

For many UK Muslims planning a spiritual journey, this system is particularly helpful. The Electronic visa waiver Saudi programme allows travellers to enter Saudi Arabia for tourism and, in many cases, to perform Umrah outside the Hajj season.

In this guide, we will explain everything UK travellers need to know about the Saudi visa Waiver UK cost, eligibility, application steps, and whether it can be used for Umrah in 2026.

What is the Saudi Visa Waiver for UK Citizens?

The Saudi visa waiver UK is a simplified electronic travel authorisation designed for British passport holders. Instead of applying for a traditional visa through a lengthy process, travellers can submit a quick online application and receive approval electronically.

This waiver allows UK citizens to visit Saudi Arabia for purposes such as:

- Tourism
- Short visits
- Attending events
- Performing Umrah (outside Hajj season)

The system is part of Saudi Arabia's broader efforts to welcome more international visitors while simplifying travel procedures.

Many travellers confuse this waiver with a full tourist visa. However, the Electronic visa waiver Saudi is essentially a streamlined travel authorisation rather than a standard visa.

Saudi Visa Waiver UK Cost

One of the biggest advantages of the Saudi visa Waiver UK cost structure is its affordability.

As of recent updates, the cost is approximately £30 for UK travellers. This fee is significantly lower than a traditional tourist visa.

What the Cost Covers

The waiver fee generally includes:

- Electronic travel authorisation
- Online processing
- Entry permission for short visits

However, it does not include:

- Flights
- Hotel accommodation
- Umrah services
- Transport within Saudi Arabia

Travellers planning Umrah often prefer complete travel arrangements that include flights, accommodation near Haram, and visa assistance through trusted providers offering Umrah travel packages from the UK.

Who is Eligible for the Saudi Visa Waiver?

The Saudi visa waiver UK is available for:

- British passport holders
- Visitors travelling for tourism or short stays
- Travellers entering through approved airports

Basic Requirements

Applicants must:

- Hold a valid UK passport
- Apply online before travelling
- Pay the application fee
- Provide travel information

Once approved, the electronic waiver is usually sent by email.

Step 2: Pay the Application Fee

Pay the Saudi visa Waiver UK cost using a secure online payment method.

Step 3: Receive Your Electronic Authorisation

Most applications are processed quickly, and travellers receive confirmation by email.

Step 4: Travel to Saudi Arabia

Present your passport and electronic waiver upon arrival.

Can You Perform Umrah with the Saudi Visa Waiver?

Many Muslims in the UK wonder whether the waiver can be used for pilgrimage.

The Saudi visa waiver UK Umrah option allows eligible travellers to perform Umrah outside the Hajj season.

However, there are important points to consider:

- Entry must be through authorised airports
- Umrah must be completed within the permitted stay
- Travellers may still need to register through official apps for Umrah access

For convenience and peace of mind, many pilgrims still choose organised Umrah travel packages where visas, hotels, and transport are arranged together.

You can explore available packages.

Electronic Visa Waiver Saudi Arabia Umrah vs Umrah Visa

There are two main ways UK Muslims travel for Umrah:

1. Electronic Visa Waiver

The Electronic visa waiver Saudi Arabia Umrah option is suitable for:

- Short trips
- Independent travellers
- Flexible travel plans

2. Umrah Visa Through Travel Agency

Traditional Umrah visas are often arranged through trusted agencies and include:

- Flights
- Hotel accommodation
- Visa processing
- Transport between Makkah and Madinah

Pilgrims seeking a smoother journey often book organised Umrah packages from London or other UK cities with experienced providers.

When Should UK Muslims Choose an Umrah Package Instead?

While the Saudi visa waiver UK is convenient, booking a complete Umrah package can provide additional benefits.

Many UK families prefer packages because they include:

- Flights from major UK airports
- Hotels near Masjid al-Haram and Masjid an-Nabawi
- Visa assistance
- Ground transport

- Group guidance for first-time pilgrims

Pilgrims can choose from different accommodation levels such as:
