Why Are Duas So Important During Umrah?

Dua—heartfelt prayer—is the essence of Umrah. Every step you take in Makkah is a chance to ask Allah for forgiveness, mercy, and blessings.

The Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) said, "Dua is worship." (Jami at-Tirmidhi 3371) And during Umrah, you're not just any guest—you're a guest of Allah Himself.

So before you travel from the UK, write down your personal duas. Make a list for your family, friends, parents, and anything else dear to your heart. Don't worry if you can't memorise every word. Allah hears every language and every whisper.

Dua Before Leaving Home for Umrah

Your journey starts the moment you step out the door. Two key duas set your intention and ask for safety as you leave for the airport—whether it's Heathrow, Manchester, or Birmingham.

How Many Times Should You Read the Talbiyah?

There’s no fixed number. You start the Talbiyah as soon as you enter Ihram—usually after the Miqat is announced on your flight from London, Birmingham, or Manchester. Keep reciting until you reach Masjid al-Haram and begin Tawaf. Men say it out loud, women say it softly.

If you’re unsure, ask your group leader or your Umrah travel agency. Our team at Noor Umrah Travels can talk you through it before you depart.

Dua When Entering Masjid al-Haram

As you approach the Grand Mosque, pause at the gate. Enter with your right foot and say:

Dua When You First See the Kaaba

That first sight of the Kaaba is unlike anything else. Your heart may race. Many people think there's a single fixed dua here, but the truth is—there isn't one specific dua from the Prophet (peace be upon him) for this moment.

So what do you do? Say "Allahu Akbar" (Allah is the Greatest). Then, pour out your heart. Ask Allah for whatever you wish—guidance, forgiveness, blessings for your family. It's a powerful time for personal dua, and many scholars say prayers are especially accepted here.

Duas for Tawaf – All 7 Rounds

Let’s clear up a big myth: there are no compulsory fixed duas for each round of Tawaf. Many books give a separate dua for every circuit, but none of these are from the Sunnah.

What matters? You start each round at the Black Stone with “Bismillah, Allahu Akbar”. You end each round at the same point. In between, you can recite any Quran, dhikr, or personal prayer.

There is one special Sunnah dua: between the Yemeni Corner and the Black Stone, say “Rabbana atina fid-dunya hasanatan wa fil-akhirati hasanatan wa qina adhaban-nar.”

Can You Make Dua in Any Language During Tawaf?

Absolutely. You don’t need to worry if you can’t speak Arabic. Use any language for your personal duas. The main thing is sincerity—Allah understands every tongue.

For Sunnah dhikr and short phrases, Arabic is best if you’re able. But heartfelt dua matters most.
