Performing Umrah is one of the most spiritually rewarding journeys a Muslim can undertake. For the estimated 1.1 million Muslims living in Northern England (2021 UK Census), Manchester serves as the most practical departure point for this sacred pilgrimage.

Manchester Airport (MAN) — the UK's third-busiest airport — offers excellent international connectivity to Saudi Arabia, making it a preferred choice over travelling several hours south to London Heathrow or Gatwick.

This comprehensive, regularly updated guide covers everything you need to know about booking Umrah packages from Manchester in 2026 — including real pricing, flight routes, hotel options by tier, the Saudi Nusuk visa system, and money-saving strategies.

Why Manchester Is an Ideal Departure City for Umrah

✈ Flight Connectivity

Manchester Airport offers multiple routing options to Saudi Arabia:

Airline	Route	Type	Approx. Flight Time
Saudi Arabian Airlines (Saudia)	Manchester → Jeddah	Direct (seasonal)	~6.5 hours
Turkish Airlines	Manchester → Istanbul → Jeddah/Madinah	1 stop	~9–11 hours
Emirates	Manchester → Dubai → Jeddah	1 stop	~10–12 hours
Qatar Airways	Manchester → Doha → Jeddah	1 stop	~10–12 hours
Etihad Airways	Manchester → Abu Dhabi → Jeddah	1 stop	~10–12 hours
Pegasus Airlines	Manchester → Istanbul Sabiha → Jeddah	1 stop (budget)	~10–13 hours

> Tip: Direct Saudia flights from Manchester to Jeddah are typically available during Ramadan and peak Hajj/Umrah season. Book early as these sell out fast.

□□ Convenience for Northern England

Manchester is the natural travel hub for Muslims in:

- Greater Manchester, Lancashire, and Merseyside
- West Yorkshire (Bradford, Leeds, Huddersfield)
- South Yorkshire (Sheffield, Rotherham)
- East Midlands (Nottingham, Derby, Leicester)

Avoiding a 4–5 hour drive or train journey to London airports saves time, money, and energy — especially important for families with children and elderly pilgrims.

Manchester vs London: Which Departure City Is Better?

Factor	Manchester (MAN)	London (LHR/LGW/STN)

Flight Options	Good — 5–6 airlines, seasonal direct	Excellent — 10+ airlines, frequent direct
Direct Flights to Jeddah	Seasonal (Saudia)	Year-round (Saudia, British Airways)
Average Package Price	£699 – £2,500	£649 – £2,400
