Performing Umrah is a deeply spiritual journey that every Muslim hopes to undertake at least once in their lifetime. For UK Muslims planning their pilgrimage in 2026, understanding the Umrah Visa Price is one of the first and most important steps.

Visa regulations and fees can change yearly depending on Saudi government policies, travel demand, and seasonal factors such as Ramadan. In this detailed guide, we explain the latest visa fees for 15 days, 1 month, and single-entry applications — specifically for UK applicants.

Whether you’re travelling from London, Birmingham, Manchester or elsewhere in the UK, this guide will help you plan with clarity and confidence.

Umrah Visa for UK Pilgrims

The Umrah visa is issued by the government of Saudi Arabia to allow Muslims to enter the Kingdom specifically for the purpose of performing Umrah in Makkah and visiting Madinah.

Unlike Hajj visas, Umrah visas are available throughout most of the year, except during the Hajj season.

For UK passport holders, there are typically two main ways to obtain an Umrah visa:

- Through an approved Umrah travel agency
- By applying for an electronic tourist visa (eVisa) where applicable

If you want to understand the digital process in detail, you can read our guide on the Saudi eVisa from the UK.

Latest Umrah Visa Price 2026 (UK Applicants)

The exact Saudi Umrah visa price UK applicants pay may vary depending on the type of visa and whether it is included in a package.

Here's a general breakdown for 2026:

15 days Umrah visa price

The 15 days Umrah visa price is typically suitable for pilgrims planning a short stay.

Estimated visa cost (if issued independently):

- £90 – £140 (subject to exchange rate and processing charges)

Most 15-day visas are single-entry and expire after the approved period.

This option is ideal for:

- Working professionals with limited leave
- Families travelling during half-term holidays
- Group Umrah departures

1 month Umrah visa price

The 1 month Umrah visa price generally falls within:

- £100 – £160 (depending on processing method)

This visa allows more flexibility and is preferred by:

- Elderly pilgrims
- Families travelling with children
- Those wishing to spend extended time in Madinah

Longer stays offer more opportunity for ibadah without rushing rituals.

Single entry Umrah visa price

The Single entry Umrah visa price is usually included within the standard Umrah visa cost.

Most Umrah visas issued for UK travellers are:

- Single entry
- Valid only for Umrah
- Time-restricted

If you leave Saudi Arabia, you would need a new visa to re-enter.

Is the Visa Included in Umrah Packages?

In most cases, yes.

When booking through a trusted UK agency such as Noor Umrah Travels, the visa is included as part of the complete package covering:

- Return flights
- Hotel accommodation in Makkah & Madinah
- Visa processing
- Ground transport
- 24/7 UK support

You can explore our full range of Umrah packages.

Booking a package often works out more cost-effective than arranging the visa separately.

Should You Apply for Umrah Visa Online?

Many UK Muslims now prefer to apply for Umrah visa online through the Saudi eVisa system.

Advantages of Online Application:

- Faster approval (often within 24–72 hours)
- Digital processing
- Suitable for short visits

However, pilgrims must ensure:

- Passport validity of at least 6 months
- Confirmed accommodation
- Return flight booking

If you're unsure, booking via a regulated UK Umrah agency ensures everything is handled correctly and in accordance with Saudi requirements.

Factors That Affect the Umrah Visa Price

Several elements influence the total cost:

✔ Exchange Rates

Visa fees are issued in Saudi Riyals and converted to GBP.

✔ Peak Seasons

Prices may increase during:

- Ramadan
- School holidays
- December & Easter breaks

For those planning Ramadan travel, see our Ramadan Umrah packages.

✔ Service Charges

Agencies may include processing and administrative fees.

UK Departure Cities & Visa Planning

Visa requirements remain the same across the UK, but flight pricing differs depending on your departure city.

We offer dedicated departures from:

- London
- Manchester
- Birmingham

Booking early helps secure better flight fares and hotel proximity near Masjid al-Haram.

Religious Reminder: Intention Matters Most

While understanding the Umrah Visa Price is important for planning, remember that Umrah is an act of worship.

The Prophet Muhammad said:

“The performance of Umrah is an expiation for the sins committed between it and the previous one.”

Your intention (niyyah), sincerity and preparation matter far more than cost.
